1. Collection of your personal information and credit-related personal information.

We, Delphi Bank, collect your personal information and credit-related personal information to assess your application, to provide you with the product or service that you have requested and to assess any future applications for products or services you may make to us or our related entities. If you are a guarantor we collect your personal information and credit-related personal information to assess whether to accept you as a guarantor for credit applied for, or provided to, the borrower. Collection of some of this information is required by the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006. If you provide incomplete or incorrect information we may be unable to provide you with the product or service you are applying for.

2. Collection of personal information and credit-related personal information about third parties.

We may need to collect personal information and credit-related personal information about a third party from you as part of this application. If we do this, you agree you will advise that person that we have collected their information and that in most cases they can access and seek correction of the information we hold about them.

3. Use and disclosure of your personal information and credit-related personal information.

We may use your personal information and credit-related personal information to perform our business functions (for example internal audit, operational risk, product development and planning). We may also use your personal information to confirm your details (for example contacting your employer to confirm your employment and income details). We treat your personal information and credit-related personal information as confidential and only disclose it to others where necessary. For example, we usually disclose your information to organisations to whom we outsource functions such as mailing and printing houses, IT providers, our agents and specialist advisers such as accountants and solicitors. Other disclosures usually include joint account holders, account operators and account applicants, Credit Reporting Bodies (as defined below), insurers, intermediaries, valuers, debt collection agencies and government authorities. Your information may also be disclosed to our related entities, our joint venture partners and Community Bank® companies where its confidentiality is maintained at all times.

4. Disclosure of personal information and credit-related personal information to overseas organisations.

Some of the organisations we disclose your personal information and credit-related personal information to may be located overseas. Where an organisation is located overseas we will either take reasonable steps to ensure that it complies with Australian privacy laws or we will seek your consent to the disclosure.

5. Access to and correction of your personal information and credit-related personal information.

In most cases you can gain access to and seek correction of your personal information and credit-related personal information. Should you wish to do so, or if you have any queries about your information, please contact us on 1300 660 550.

6. Direct marketing

We may use your personal information and credit-related personal information to inform you about financial products and services that are related to those you have with us or other products and services we think you may be interested in. These may be products and services provided by us, our related entities or other entities we are associated with. If you do not wish to receive any marketing material from us please contact us on 1300 660 550.

7. Collection, use and disclosure of your credit-related personal information.

By signing this application you agree that we can do all of the following:

- a. Commercial credit-related personal information Seek and use commercial credit-related personal information to assess an application for consumer credit or commercial credit.
- b. Consumer credit-related personal information Seek and use consumer credit-related personal information to assess an application for consumer credit or commercial credit.
- c. Collection of overdue payments Seek and use a credit report provided by a credit reporting body to collect overdue payments.
- d. Exchange of information between credit providers Seek from and use or give to another credit provider (including a credit provider who has lent money on the same security) any information or opinion about credit worthiness, credit standing, credit history or credit capacity.
- e. Exchange of information with intermediaries Seek from and use any consumer or commercial credit-related information from or disclose that information to, any introducer, financial adviser, accountant, mortgage manager, lawyer, or other intermediary (including any intermediary mentioned on the front page of this application form) acting in connection with any credit applied for or provided.
- f. Provide credit information to credit reporting bodies In this privacy disclosure statement, the "Credit Reporting Body" means each of the following organisations (whether acting individually or together):

Equifax
PO Box 964
North Sydney NSW 2059
Public Enquiries: 1300 762 207
Website: www.mycreditfile.com.au

Illion
PO Box 7405 St. Kilda Road
Melbourne VIC 3004
Public Enquiries: 1300 734 806
Website: www.checkyourcredit.com.au

Give to a Credit Reporting Body credit information. Credit information is defined in the Privacy Act and includes, to the extent applicable: identification information; consumer credit liability information; repayment history information; a statement that an information request has been made in relation to you by us, or a mortgage insurer or trade insurer; the type of consumer credit or commercial credit, and the amount of credit, sought in an application:

- that has been made by you to us; and - in connection with which we have made an information request in relation to you; default information; payment information; new arrangement information; court proceedings information; personal insolvency information; publicly available information;
- that relates to your activities in Australia or the external Territories and your credit worthiness; and that is not court proceedings information about you or information about you that is entered or recorded on the National Personal Insolvency Index; our opinion that you have committed, in circumstances specified by us, a serious credit infringement in relation to consumer credit provided by us to you. The Credit Reporting Body may include the information given by us in reports provided to other credit providers to assist them to assess your credit worthiness. The Credit Reporting Body has a policy for managing your credit-related personal information that you may access by contacting them.

In some cases a Credit Reporting Body may use your information for pre-screening your eligibility to receive direct marketing from us or other credit providers. If you do not want a Credit Reporting Body to do this contact the Credit Reporting Body. Where you believe on reasonable grounds that you have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud you may request a Credit Reporting Body not to use or disclose your information.

g. Provide information for securitisation Disclose any report or information to another person in connection with funding by means of an arrangement involving securitisation.

h. Provide information to guarantors Disclose any information to any person who proposes to guarantee or has guaranteed repayment of any credit provided.

8. Providing your personal information and credit-related information to a mortgage insurer.

In this privacy disclosure statement, the "Insurer" means each of the following organisations (whether acting individually or together):

QBE Lenders' Mortgage Insurance Limited (ABN 70 000 511 071)
82 Pitt Street, Sydney NSW 2000
Phone: 1300 367 764 Contact: Privacy Officer
Email: compliance.manager@qbe.com
Website: www.qbelmi.com

Genworth Financial Mortgage Insurance Pty Limited (ABN 60 106 974 305)
Level 26, 101 Miller Street,
North Sydney NSW 2060
Phone: 1300 655 422
Website: www.genworth.com.au

We may disclose your personal information and credit-related personal information when we apply to the Insurer for lenders mortgage insurance (LMI). By you signing this application, the Insurer can do the following: Where permitted by the Privacy Act 1988, the Insurer may seek and obtain from a credit reporting body commercial credit information concerning your credit worthiness or history; consumer information; and collection of overdue payments information. The Insurer collects your information for the purposes of assessing our application and securing and administering LMI for your mortgage, including dealing with claims and recovery of proceeds. The information collected by the Insurer is required under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) and is necessary for the Insurer to undertake its business. If you do not provide any of the information requested of you then the Insurer will not be able to issue insurance. As a result, we may not be able to provide the mortgage to you. The Insurer may use your information to assess the risk of providing LMI to us, you defaulting on your obligations to us and you being unable to meet a liability arising under a guarantee in respect of mortgage finance given (or to be given) by us to another person. The Insurer may also use your information to verify your details provided by us, administer or vary any LMI cover provided (including for securitisation and hardship applications, dealing with claims, recovery of proceeds and enforcing the mortgage in the place of us), to conduct risk assessment and management involving securitisation, credit scoring, portfolio analysis, reporting, fraud prevention and claim recovery, to comply with any regulatory requirements including under the Privacy Act 1988 and Insurance Contracts Act 1984 as amended from time to time, and for any other LMI purpose relating to you or under the insurance policy issued by the Insurer to us in respect of your credit with us or as may be permitted by the Privacy Act 1988. The Insurer may disclose your information to its related companies; us; your guarantor or potential guarantor; other insurers; claims assessors and investigators; parties for the purposes of securitisation; re-insurers; underwriters; loan servicers; trust managers; trustees and security trustees; organisations involved in surveying or registering a security property or which otherwise have an interest in a security property; ratings agencies; credit reporting bodies; its service providers (including marketing companies, data consultants and IT contractors); its agents, contractors, and external advisers; your referees, including your employer; your legal and financial advisers; brokers or referrers that submitted applications on your behalf or referred you to the mortgage manager; organisations that are involved in debt collecting or in purchasing debts; mercantile agents if you default on your obligations to us; payment system operators; parties involved in fraud prevention (including organisations such as fraud reporting agencies, that may identify, investigate and/or prevent fraud, suspected fraud, crimes, suspected crimes, or other serious misconduct); other financial institutions and credit providers; and government and other regulatory bodies (e.g. the Insurance Council of Australia, ASIC and the ATO). Where permitted by the Privacy Act 1998 the Insurer may disclose your information to organisations located overseas (including in the USA, Canada, the United Kingdom or the Philippines) such as its related companies, re-insurers, service providers (including but not limited to data consultants and IT contractors), its agents, contractors and external advisers and government and other regulatory bodies. Overseas organisations may be required to disclose information shared with them with relevant foreign authorities under a foreign law. In those instances the Insurer is not responsible for that disclosure. The Insurer may also, to the extent permitted by the Privacy Act 1988, disclose information about you to a credit reporting body for any purpose set out in this consent. The credit reporting body gives other organisations (such as other credit providers) information to help them assess your credit worthiness. Some of the information may adversely affect your credit worthiness (for example if you have defaulted on your loan) and accordingly, may affect your ability to obtain credit from other credit providers. The Insurer may need to exchange your information with credit providers and advisors during the course of the mortgage insurance policy for any purpose set out in this consent. The Insurer may seek and obtain further personal information (including sensitive information) about you during the course of the mortgage insurance policy. The terms of this consent and the Insurer's Privacy Policy and Credit Reporting Policy apply to the collection, use and disclosure of that information. The Insurer may store your information in cloud or other types of networked or electronic storage and will take reasonable steps to ensure its security, however, it is not always practicable to find out where your information may be accessed or held, as electronic or networked storage can be accessed from various countries via an internet connection.

Each Insurer has a Privacy and Credit Reporting Policy which contains information about: a. how you can access and seek correction of your information held by the Insurer; b. how you can complain about a breach of the Privacy Act 1988 (including any applicable privacy principles) or any registered privacy code that binds the insurer in respect of your personal or credit information (as appropriate); and c. how the Insurer will deal with a complaint. Each policy available on the Insurer's website or by contacting them.

9. Privacy Policy and Credit Reporting Policy You should also read our Privacy Policy and Credit Reporting Policy.

Our Privacy Policy contains information about: a. how you can access and seek correction of your personal information; b. how you can complain about a breach of the privacy laws by us and how we will deal with a complaint; c. if we will disclose personal information to overseas entities, and where practicable, which countries those recipients are located in. Our Credit Reporting Policy contains information about: a. how you can access and seek correction of your credit eligibility information; b. how you can seek correction of your credit information; c. how you can complain about a breach of the credit reporting laws by us and how we will deal with a complaint; d. if we disclose your credit information or credit eligibility information to overseas entities, and where practicable, which countries those recipients are located in. Our Credit Reporting Policy is available on our website www.delphibank.com.au or by telephoning 1300 660 550. PPSA means the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth) and any regulations made pursuant to it. I/We agree to waive the right to receive any notice under the PPSA (including notice of a verification statement) unless the notice is required by the PPSA and cannot be excluded.

We, Delphi Bank, collect your personal information to assess your application, to provide you with the product or service that you have requested and to assess any future applications for products or services you may make to us or our related entities. Collection of some of this information is required by the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006. If you provide incomplete or incorrect information we may be unable to provide you with the product or service you are applying for.

14. Personal Certification

I/We certify that the foregoing information/statements are true and complete in every particular. I/We acknowledge that upon signing this certificate I/We agree to abide by the relevant Terms and Conditions and accept full responsibility for transactions conducted on my/our account/s by me/us and additional cardholder/s nominated by me/us. I hereby authorise and instruct the Delphi Bank to pay and honour all withdrawals on my/our account/s signed by them.
